

Afternoon Tea Made Without Gluten

At Fortnum & Mason, we've always recognised the importance of tea. Since our earliest days, we've known it's far more than just a humble thing to sip.

A cup of the good stuff can awaken, enliven, and restore. Brewed just right, tea can console, calm and soothe; even promote friendship and fellowship. So, who's for a cup or two?

Afternoon Tea Made Without Dairy

Before the short, stout, handle-and-spouted teapot of today, there was just a bowl; a simple clay Chinese vessel that was made to hold and infuse tea leaves in hot water, before it was poured through a hole or strainer. It took until the sixteenth century for the first actual teapot to appear, in Yixing, China: a town now famed for its teapots.
