CHAMPAGNE OF THE MONTH

Founded in 1811, Perrier-Jouët is known for its floral, elegant style and long history of winemaking. The Grand Brut is a lively and approachable expression of the house, offering notes of orchard fruit, citrus and a soft, creamy finish with hints of vanilla and pastry. The Blanc de Blancs is made entirely from Chardonnay. It's fresh and vibrant, with stone fruit, floral lift and a smooth texture. Blason Rosé is fuller in style, with ripe red fruits, buttery richness and a balanced structure that pairs beautifully with a range of dishes. A trio that showcases the house's signature finesse and charm.
