CHAMPAGNE OF THE MONTH

LOUIS ROEDERER

One of the last great independent and family-run Champagne Houses.

When he inherited the Champagne House in 1833, the aesthete and entrepreneur Louis Roederer took a visionary approach to enriching his vines, aiming to master every stage of the wine's creation. He forged the wine's unique style, character, and taste. In the mid-nineteenth century, Louis Roederer acquired some of Champagne's Grand Cru vineyards-an approach that contrasted sharply with contemporary practices.
